Volume 15 Issue 7

An Affiliate of the Society of Decorative Painters

July 2018

Ladies of the Brush,

Thank you Nancy for the cantaloupe class. Everyone's painting looked wonderful. Thank you Nedra for taking the minutes for us.

We still need volunteers for the Christmas Committee. At last year's Christmas Party at the Flagler Woman's Club we had miscellaneous door prizes. Please think about donating something hand painted or handmade as a door prize or any item you would like to donate. We can keep the pieces hidden until the party so they will be a surprise to the winners. We had some beautiful items donated last year.

I will not be at the July meeting. I will be at a family reunion in Texas and spending some time with my son and his wife. Rest assured, we will have plenty of Mexican food while we are there.

Save a couple of your Styrofoam egg cartons! They work well for painting with 12 colors at a paint-in; and the inside of the lid can work as a blending surface. You can probably think a dozen different ways to use them for your paints!

Ladies of the Brush,

Here we are with half the year already over. Time flies when you are busy painting.

Our July workshop is on Friday, 6 July instead of Saturday because there was a conflict with scheduling. It is an open paint day where you can work on boxes or one of your UFOs. There is no fee for this day.

Lunch will be served for $5.00. Also, Nancy Walsh will be teaching stroke work for those who are interested. If you plan to do the stroke work you will need to bring a chisel edge brush, a round brush and a liner. This is a good class as stroke work helps you with all your painting.

The September 8th workshop is the Round Daisy. This is on a 10 inch plate with a pen and ink border and an oil painted Daisy in the center. The oil paints will be provided. You can sign up at the July workshop or by mail.

Happy Painting,

Lee
