Letter from the President

Ladies of the Brush

At the moment, we plan to have our meeting and workshop on 11 July. I will be teaching a strokework box. It is an easy pattern. Registration form included with this newsletter.

While we are planning on serving lunch, however that may change depending of the number of attendees and safety precautions in place at the time.

We are hoping and praying that our world will return to some semblance of normal soon. But rest assured, as a chapter we will be observing social distancing and other measures in beating COVID.

Hang in there girls. We are in this together. Meanwhile, I hope you are painting at home. I have dwindled down my UFO projects. Even found time to paint a few other things.

Lee

Letter from the 1st Vice President

Hi Ladies –

Our first Workshop since February is almost here – July 11th is the date to be exact. I can hardly wait! And, of course, we will be social distancing, wearing masks, and observing the necessary precautions. No one wants anyone to have any issues.

The July project is ‘A Little Box of Whimsy’, a strokework piece, being taught by Lee Fasnacht. This project requires just a minimal amount of prep and the design itself can be transferred onto your piece in class. We will be using a very limited palette. Prep is so simple that there is still enough time to sign up for the class and have some time left over.

The August project is even easier – just gather your stuff and come to class. Sure couldn’t be simpler. When you go home, you’ll even have 2 lovely cards that you didn’t need to make a trip to the store to buy. Claire LaRue will be teaching this ‘Batik Greeting Card’ project. She will even be supplying the watercolors and card stock for a $1 palette fee. Just bring a few watercolor brushes, if you have them, and an old brush to apply the hot wax. If you have your own wax pot it would be helpful, so bring it along.

Sign-ups are also now in process for Nancy Walsh’s September class, ‘Keepers of the Sea’ (Mermaids) and Alise Duerr’s October class, ‘Hanging With My Gnomie’. Both of these classes require a lot more prep work, so be sure to get started while we still have a bit of down time.

I already have the surfaces for ‘My Gnomie’ that are available for purchase at cost. I will bring them to the Workshops beginning in July. (I bought them in the Spring while they were on sale for $10 each and tax and shipping were included.)

July’s luncheon menu is a Pieriogi Casserole & Salad for $5.

To sign up for any of these classes, just give me a call (386-447-1923) or an email (rcm0335@gmail.com).

Continue to stay well and we’ll see you at July’s meeting and workshop.

PAINTING TIP FROM NANCY WALSH

Fresh from Cupboard Distributing newsletter... Scotch Brand has a new Artist Tape for Curves, designed for creating hard, curved, painting edges; can be stretched into curved edges. Probably available in other places, but for sure from Cupboard Distributing!

KIDS R FIRST

Hello to All!

I am sending each of you a big virtual hug. I have been painting boxes for our Kids R First Program. I have plenty of boxes if anyone would like to get some to paint in our "down" time. Just email me at (kray9106@gmail.com or kray9106@aol.com) and we can figure out how best to get them to you.

Please stay safe.

Palm Coast Decorative Painters (PCDP) is a non-profit, affiliated chapter of the National Society of Decorative Painters. A monthly meeting, followed by a painting workshop, is held the first Saturday of each month (usually) at the Flagler Women's club, 1524 S. Central Avenue, Flagler Beach. Business meetings start at 9:00 a.m. followed by the scheduled workshop/seminar. All levels of painters are welcome to any of the meetings. Check out our website (updated at the end of each month):
