June 2018

Ladies of the Brush,

It was so good to see Ruth McDonald at our May meeting. We were surprised to see that she was painting so soon after shoulder surgery!

Thank you Jane Van Buren for a wonderful demonstration of "Mudding" at our May meeting. Your sample projects are beautiful. We welcomed Barbara Friesto our meeting. She decided to join our Chapter!

Just a reminder that at our June 2nd cantaloupe class with Nancy Walsh we will have a light lunch of sandwiches, salad, dessert and drink for a price of $5 each. Please let Lee know if you want to partake in the luncheon so we will know how many to plan for.

Thank you Lee for great idea of a potato bar luncheon at our May meeting. Everyone enjoyed it. Also, thank you Lee for planning our workshops and seminars. Nancy has turned our Ways & Means items into a fun raffle that is making money for our Chapter. Thank you Nancy. Jane Van Buren has been recruiting new members and our Chapter keeps growing. Great job Jane! In spite of shoulder surgery, Ruth keeps up with our treasury and keeps our accounts in balance. Thank you Ruth. Everyone knows that Georgia always does a great job on our newsletter. What would we do without her?

We need volunteers for the Nominating Committee for 2019 officers. We need volunteers for the Christmas Committee. The Board voted to have the Christmas party at the Woman's Club again this year. Everyone will be glad to help with the plans.

Our November class has been moved to the second Saturday of November, November 10th because of the Woman's Club schedule.

Ways & Means: Nancy Walsh said the raffle raised $95. Surprise items for the June 2nd meeting are being brought by Lee Fasnacht and Lana Raymond.

Lee reported that Ken's donation photograph is being displayed at Chez Jacqueline, and Jacqueline is promoting ticket sales, and she is showcasing the project in her newsletter. Members should try to shop at Chez Jacqueline for her efforts in supporting our Chapter.

Doreen McCollum was unable to attend the fashion show in March so she donated $50 in support of our Chapter. We thank Doreen for her generous gift.
